Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 17 April 2007.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Art Unit: 1761

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on April 17, 2007 has been entered.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-3, 6 and 8-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Axelrod et al in view of Wang. Axelrod et al is described in paragraph no. 5, Paper No. 072104. Wang is applied as set forth in paragraph no. 3, Paper No. 063005, which is the Office action with a mail date of July 12, 2005.

4. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Axelrod et al in view of Wang as applied to claims 1-3, 6 and 8-20 above, and further in view of Gluck et al as set forth in paragraph no. 6, Paper No. 072104.

5. Claims 1 and 12 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 1, line 4, the 3d comma should be changed to "and", and line 5, "and" should be added before "at". In claim 12, line 5, the 3d comma should be changed to "and". Appropriate correction is required.

Art Unit: 1761

6. Applicant's arguments filed April 17, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Although Axelrod et al does not include animal meat per se in the pet chew described therein, Wang renders it obvious to substitute beef or chicken meat for the animal meal used in Axelrod et al. In this regard, applicant is referred to col. 3, lines 31-40 of Wang wherein chicken or beef meat are disclosed as being alternatives to animal meal, e.g. chicken powder, used in pet chews. The particular particle size of applicant's animal meat component is not critical, and in the absence of unexpected results is entitled to no patentable weight but rather merely depends upon personal preference and consumer appeal.

6. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
